CUTTING THROUGH THE FLUFF

Leader: Jim Cooper

Drawing on his own personal story of redemption, Jim will demonstrate how honest conversations about our personal brokenness can open the door to spiritual transformation for people both in and outside the church. A retired Army ranger, Jim now works as a Senior Vice President for Morgan Stanley and serves at Mountain Park as director of both their Men's HOPE ministry and ReEngage marriage ministry.

CAN YOGA TRULY BE CHRIST-CENTERED?

Leader: Elena Porter

Discover how a Christ-centered yoga ministry—one that embodies our call to love God with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength (Mark 12:30-21)—can have a powerful impact on those inside and outside the church. Speaker Elena, Manager of Solution Design Community Behavioral Health, is a certified Holy Yoga Instructor and direct of Mountain Park's Christ-Centered Yoga ministry.

TRAINING PARENTS TO BE SPIRITUAL LEADERS

Leader: Jan van Amerongen

If we want to raise up the next generation of Christ-followers, we must be strategic in calling and equipping parents to be the spiritual leaders God intends them to be. Currently serving as the Executive Pastor of Mountain Park, Jan spent 10 years in family ministry refining an approach to this important task.

HIRING WELL

Leader: Rachael Hanania

Hiring the right person is about more than networking and personalities—and requires a disciplined approach that helps you determine whether a candidate has the experience and abilities necessary to fill a particular role. Speaking from over 20 years of corporate and church experience in human resources, Rachael will share practical tips for identifying the most qualified candidate and setting them up for success.
