

MODULE I : Inglewood, CA

April 21–22, 2020

Important Details | Introduction | Kingdom Building

Logistics:

- Dates: April 21-22, 2020
- Location: Inglewood, CA
- Meeting Location: The Center of Hope Church
- Hotel: The Westin (LAX)

Faculty/Staff:

Reggie McNeal

Ava Steaffens

Jeremy Dixon

Ben Sand

Natalie Farmer

Overview:

Fellows will meet for the first time in Inglewood, CA. Reggie McNeal will offer an ecclesiological and theological framework for the importance of congregations actively engaging in a constantly changing world. Ava Steaffens will present how theology affects our view of our local communities by sharing a robust picture of how the local church can transform community while holding firm to evangelism and discipleship.

Jeremy Dixon will tell the history of Inglewood, how Center of Hope has served the city over time, and what Center of Hope is doing now to meet the changing needs of community members. Fellows will get a tour of Inglewood before participating in a time of reflection and discussion with the panel of Faculty. The Church of God Regional Convention will be taking place immediately after this session at the Center of Hope, and Fellows are invited to remain on campus a few additional days to participate.

MODULE II : Europe

May 17–26, 2020

Self-Awareness | Love | Heroism | Ingenuity

Logistics:

- Dates: May 17-26, 2020
- Location: Ireland, Amsterdam

Faculty/Staff:

Ben Sand

Jim Lyon

Natalie Farmer

Overview:

Fellows will travel together to Ireland to journey through a variety of experiential exercises that accentuate the Ignatian disciplines of Self-Awareness and Love (Ireland), and Heroism and Ingenuity (Amsterdam). The time of reflection and spiritual focus in Ireland contrasted with the post-Christian culture immersion in Amsterdam will set the stage for robust discussion about how we as Christians are called to develop strategies (heroism and ingenuity) to bring the gospel forward in today's culture.

MODULE III : San Diego, CA

July 8–10, 2020

“The Action Lab”

Logistics:

- Dates: July 8-10, 2020
- Location: San Diego, CA
- Meeting Location: The Rock Church
- Hotel: TBD

Faculty/Staff:

Ben Sand

Ava Steaffens

Reggie McNeal

Jeremy Dixon

Natalie Farmer

Overview:

During this Module, Fellows will contrast what they have learned about the orthodoxy of living out the gospel in the neighborhood with the orthopraxy of putting theology into action. Curriculum covered will include: Asset-Based Community Development (a case study on ministry delivery strategies developed at The Rock Church) and exploration of the work done by the Portland Leadership Foundation. Fellows will be introduced to the importance and mechanics of crafting a Concept Paper and will learn about the Process of Change.

MODULE IV : Seattle, WA

September 9–10, 2020

“A Building Workshop:
From Good Intentions to Effective Outcomes”

Logistics:

- Dates: September 9-10, 2020
- Location: Seattle, WA
- Meeting Location: TBD
- Hotel: TBD

Faculty/Staff:

Overview:

Fellows will submit Concept Papers to Chapter 4 Faculty prior to this Module commencing. Papers will be reviewed and Faculty will provide robust feedback to help Fellows and their teams sharpen their ideas and more clearly articulate their action plans. Fellows will learn about how to take good ideas and turn them into effective outcomes.

MODULE V : Sunriver, OR

March 2021

“A Storytelling Workshop”

Logistics:

- Dates: March 2021
- Location: Sunriver, OR
- Meeting Location: TBD
- Hotel: TBD

Faculty/Staff:

Ben Sand

Kimberly Majeski

Natalie Farmer

Overview:

After 6 months of Concept Paper implementation in their local communities, Fellows will come together to discuss what has been working well, what has not worked well, and how to begin crafting the story of how their ministry is engaging the community in new ways. Fellows will learn about effective storytelling techniques (written and oral), as well as best practices available in the market today to deliver messaging (social media, advertising, etc.).
